2017 WEEK 19

UPCOMING EVENTS

Deadline Application ABRI’s PhD Summer School in Management Studies - 15 May
The Amsterdam Business Research Institute (ABRI) is delighted to invite you to ABRI's PhD Summer School in Management Studies held at Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, the Netherlands, on June 19 - 21, 2017.

The Summer School aims to help PhD candidates and young researchers to understand the complex theoretical field related to collaboration and provides a broad theoretical and methodological toolkit for participants to use in designing and executing their empirical studies. In doing so, the Summer School aims to help participants to attain a better view on how their research can contribute to current literatures. In addition to expanding our theoretical and methodological toolkits, the studies that we will discuss have important implications for various individuals, groups, organizations, and communities in the broader society.

ARCA Seminar Arnie Wright - 15 May
Arnie Wright (Northeastern University and Vrije Universiteit) will present his paper (co-authored with Jeff Cohen, Ganesh Krishnamoorthy and Marietta Peytcheva) titled: “Investor reliance on PCAOB inspection reports” (for the abstract please click here).

This seminar will take place on Monday, May 15 from 12.00 to 14.00 in 8A-44 in the Main building. To register for the ARCA seminar, please send an email to: l.m.abinta@vu.nl

ABRI Lunch Seminar Aljona Zorina - 19 May
On 19 May Aljona Zorina (Leeds University Business School) will hold a lunch seminar titled “Transformative Technology Tools and External Dynamics in Innovating User Communities”. It will be held on 19 May from 12:00 till 13:30 in HG 9A-33.

NEWS

Peeter Verlegh Keynote Speaker Retail Conference
On May 12, Peeter Verlegh provides the opening keynote at the international 2017 Koc University Retail conference.

Theme of the presentation is “consumer research-based insights on word of mouth and social media”

The conference hosts academic and practitioner speakers from Canada, US, and Turkey, and will discuss the role of social media in retailing. The event is organized annually by Koc University, a leading business school in Turkey. The link can be found here, and is especially interesting if you happen to speak Turkish: https://kumpem.ku.edu.tr/

Katinka Quintelier joined the M&O department
This month Katinka Quintelier joined the M&O department as an assistant professor in Strategy and Organization. She will be teaching and doing research at the intersection of strategy and ethics.

Previously, Katinka obtained a PhD in philosophy with a focus on moral psychology, at Ghent University. She is now finishing a second PhD in Strategy, with a focus on the moral psychology of stakeholders, at the University of Amsterdam. Katinka has publications in journals such as Frontiers in Psychology, Human Nature, Thinking and Reasoning, and – as one of many co-authors – in PNAS and Personality and Social Psychology Bulletin.

Katinka looks forward to meeting you all.
