ETDW: Workshop: June 27 and 28: Michael Lounsbury, David Seidl and others
The 3rd European Theory Development Workshop will be held on the 27th and 28th of June at VU University, Amsterdam. The workshop is an initiative of a number of leading European business schools and provides European researchers with an opportunity to present and share papers with the editors of the leading theory journals in the field including the Academy of Management Review, Organization Science, Journal of Management Studies and Organization Studies. The overall purpose of the workshop is developmental, with editors and experienced senior colleagues providing feedback and helping to get papers a step closer to publication. More than 60 of the leading researchers in business and management will be on campus for those two days, including the two keynote speakers for this year’s event: Michael Lounsbury (University of Alberta) and David Seidl (University of Zurich). They will work hard during the day, but will enjoy the picturesque scenery and urban cool of Amsterdam during a social event on the Friday evening.

ABRI: PhD Defence: July 7, 2014: Chen Fleisher
Chen Fleisher will defend his dissertation titled “The contemporary career navigator: Individual and organizational outcomes of self-directed career management” on July 7 at 11:45 in the Aula at the VU University Amsterdam. For more information please click here.
